Why one must have Taptamudradharane?

- Tapta mudradharane has a prominent place in Madhwa philosophy.
- Tapta Mudradharane is the "Vaishnavathva" symbol. During Jatakarma, choula, upanayana and mantropadesha times, Mudradharane has an importance.
- Mudradharane to be taken every year Shayanaikadashi (Ashada shukla ekadashi), Shravana Dwadashi Upavasa day, Bhadrapada shukla ekadashi, kaarthika shukla ekadashi, upakarma day.
- In harivamsha - we can find that Srikrishna had ordered that only those who have Mudradharane can enter Dwarake.
- Taptamudradharana Mahatva can be found in various Granthaas,
 1. Chakrastuthi of Vadirajaru,
 2. Taptachakrameemamsa by Sri Vijayeendrararu,
 3. Taptamudradharanasamarthanam by Sri Kundalagiri Acharyaru,
 4. Yukthimallika-Phalisaurabha of Srivadirajaru, etc.

For Sudarshana chakra - Mahalaxmi's Durgarooma is abhimani devate.

For Shanka - Sri mahalaxmi's Shreerooma is abhimani devate.

Durga rooma - tamoguna abhimani devate

Shree rooma - satvaguna abhimani devate.

Because of wearing Mudradharane - Power of Tamoguna - ajnaana, mithyaagnaana, will be removed, and through Shanka - Sathvaguna will be replacing tamoguna.
