
"Purandara Gurum Vande Daasa Shreshtam Dayanidhe"

Purandara Mantapa at Hampi

Postal Stamp of Purandaradasaru

"Daasarendare Purandara daasarayya"

Vyasararajaru, the Guru of Sri Purandaradasaru, has said
" Daasarendare Purandara Daasarayya"

Four daasas have been referred as "Chathwari Shrungas" of Haridasa Sahitya, viz., Purandara, Vijaya, Gopala, and Jagannatha dasaru.

He has composed more than 4 lakh "Kruthis" but hardly around 1000 are now available for us. He was a master of Music, Suladi, mandigEs Keerthanas, Ugabhoga, etc. His Sahitya was called as "Purandaropanishat" and was placed next to Sarvamoola Granthas by Sri Vyasarajaru. Purandara Dasaru is also called as "Karnataka Sangeetha Pithamaha". Saint Thyagarajaru was influenced by Sri Purandaradasaru and he has almost translated many songs of Purandaradasaru in Telugu.

1. Birth Place - Purandara Ghada, 18 Miles from Poona
2. Period - 1480 A.D to 1564 A.D
3. Janma naama - Srinivasa Naika
4. Profession - Business in Gold and precious stones
5. Gotra - Vasista, Yajurshaka
6. Wife's name - Saraswathi Bai
7. Children - four children – Varadappa, Gururaya, Abhinavappa and Guru Madhwapathi
8. Other details - He was a "Lobhi" "Jipuna". He had a lot of wealth and was popularly called as "Navakoti Narayana", but he hardly gave anything to anybody.
9. Vairagya - When he was 40 years, "Lobha" gave place to "Vairagya", his "love of Gold" turned as "love of God" and became "Haridasa". He left Purandara Gada alongwith his entire family and visited 'Pandarapura' and came to Vijayanagar and sought the Shishyatva of Shri Vyasara jaru, who gave him "Ankitha" as "Purandara Vittala" and asked him to compose Kruthis on Devaranama in Kannada.
10. He became a Haridaasa and left every thing and started "Madhukara Vrutti". His dress consisted of a turban, tulasimale, tamburi, chitike, gejjje, and gopalabutti consisting of voluntarily contributed food and other articles. He was contemporary of great personalities like Vadirajaru, Kanakadasaru
11. Purandara Mantapa - Sri Krishnadevaraya, the King of Vijayanagar, invited him to his palace and built a Japashala for Purandaradasaru, near Chakrathirtha, now popularly called as "Purandara Mantapa"
12. He is said to be the amsha of Naaradararu

13.He attained the feet of Purandara Vittala on Pushya Bahula
Amavasye, in Raktakshi naama samvatsara in 1564 AD.
